2. Policy Statement

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. So that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the non-profit organization and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights.

#	Donor right
1	To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2	To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3	To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
4	To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5	To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
6	To be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7	To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
8	To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.
9	To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.
10	To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful, and forthright answers.
